

How to read a paper offline: Android tablet

	Make sure that you have installed a pdf-reader (iAnnotate is recommended). Log in to DE using your tablet. Choose exam and paper. Click on “Download” (“Read in Browser” drop-down menu). On tablet: Unzip the file using a File Manager app. Click on the file name in the unzipped folder to open in pdf-reader.
	iAnnotate: Menu on the right lists annotation tools and search tools. Click on icon to select tool.
	Optional: Share your annotations: Select in bottom line of toolbox menu what to share (file, file with annotations, or just annotations).
	Choose how to share the materials. (Note: Information identifying individuals must not be shared in the “cloud”).
	Tip: Mailing a summary to yourself is useful for preparing notes for the oral exam, or for preparing feedback to the students. Feedback files should be uploaded to DE and shared with the students using DE’s feedback functions.
	Optional: Upload annotated file to DE: Select “Upload” from the drop-down menu (“Read in browser”), and locate file on tablet. Note: File to be uploaded must have exactly the same name as the one downloaded (after being unzipped).
